

Things To Do in an Extended Power Outage

Sweat. Profusely.

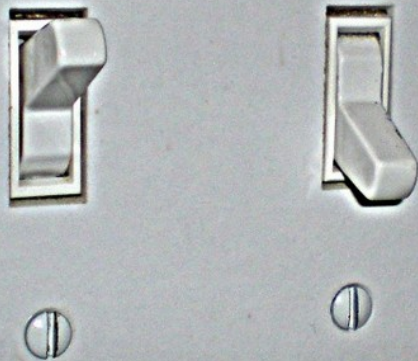

And swear. Profanely.

Wear as little as you feel you can get away with to beat the sweltering heat.

Flip the light switch on EVERY TIME you walk into a dark room.
Dumb ass.

Buy shitloads of ice ...

... BBQ everything & force everyone to eat three times their weight ...

... but still ultimately throw away hundreds of dollars of perishable food.

Woo any friends and family who have electricity ...

... so you can spend the night ...

Miss TV. So much. Vow to watch more when your power is restored.

Curse that the batteries in your best damned
flashlight are corroded.

Complain to your power company.
Often. Offer cookies. Or bribes.

Badger the power company with questions while they're working.
They LOVE that.

A photograph of several lit red candles and a lit matchstick against a black background. The candles are of various heights and are lit, with bright yellow flames. The matchstick is lit and is positioned near the candles. The overall scene is dimly lit, with the light from the candles illuminating the surrounding area.

Use scented candles for light.
Because your house is also gonna stink.

Tend to your pets.
Give them water & food. Or they will find their own.

Commit to looking like crap. For as long as it lasts.

A person is sitting in a chair, working on a laptop at a desk. The room is dimly lit, with light coming from a window with vertical blinds. The person is in silhouette, and the laptop screen is the primary light source. A red thermos is on the desk next to the laptop. The text "Be weird enough to make a Brite book about the whole experience." is overlaid on the bottom right of the image.

Be weird enough to make a Brite
book about the whole experience.
